Our Mission

Why "Out On Patrol"

Out On Patrol has been an idea in the making for many years. In 2019 it became a reality when we came together as a small group of police officers from British Columbia to officially incorporate as a non-profit society.

The name "Out On Patrol" perfectly describes what we are trying to achieve as members of law enforcement. We are LGBTQ2S+ peace officers out on patrol and we are here to not only support one another, but to advance positive and progressive initiatives within our communities.

PEER SUPPORT

Working in law enforcement can be mentally taxing and emotionally draining. Having a strong peer support network is key to mental resiliency and stress relief. Out On Patrol provides a peer support network for LGBTQ2S+ members of law enforcement.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

There have been great strides over the years to bridge the gap between the LGBTQ2S+ community and law enforcement. Out On Patrol recognizes there is still work to be done, and is proud to host events which will provide the community a positive and welcoming space to interact with LGBTQ2S+ law enforcement members.

CHARITABLE WORK

Out On Patrol plans to create a scholarship fund for LGBTQ2S+ youth who are interested in pursuing a career in law enforcement. The society is also dedicated to supporting local LGBTQ2S+ charities.

EDUCATION

Our members have first-hand experience with the difficulties LGBTQ2S+ youth face on a daily basis. Out On Patrol is proud to offer educational presentations for elementary and secondary schools, in an effort to combat bullying. These presentations also provide a platform for our members to act as positive role models for youth interested in pursuing a career in law enforcement.
